Weddings, Engagements Among Week's Chronicles

of this city, son of Mr. George Neville Warwick of Los Angeles, Calif. The ceremony, which was witnessed by a large company of relatives and friends, was performed at 8 o'clock at the church, by the bride's father, assisted by the rector of the church, Rev. Percy Foster Hall. An elaborate decoration of white peonies, palms and ferns adorned the altar.

The bride wore a gown of white crepe satin made on long lines and heavily embroidered in pearls in a design of roses. Her tulle veil fell in graceful folds to the end of her long court train of tulle, and she carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and orchid sweet peas.

Miss Jane Griffith attended her sister as maid of honor, wearing a gown of orchid georgette over metal cloth, the skirt made over a hoop, which was garlanded with flowers. Miss Dorothy Griffith, another sister of the bride, was the bridesmaid, and wore green georgette made in the same way. Their bouquets were of orchid and pink sweet peas and pink roses.

The little flower girls, Courtenay Page, Waller and Carter Waller, nieces of the bride, wore dainty green and orchid organdy ruffled dresses and carried baskets of orchid and pink sweet peas and pink roses.

Mr. Eli Lewis Washington acted as best man and the ushers were Mr. Douglas Lindsay, Mr. Hammond Griffith, Mr. Ben Le Fevre and Mr. Will Griffith.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Joyce Walcott, Rosemont, Va. The wedding was decorated with pink and white peonies and ferns and candles were lighted in the chancel.

Mrs. Griffith assisted the bride couple in receiving, and her gown was of black Spanish lace, with a jet girdle. Mr. and Mrs. Warwick left for their wedding trip, and they will be at home after June 15 at the Brunswick apartment.

The out-of-town guests at the wedding included Miss Virginia Fleming of West Virginia and Miss Helen McCay of North Carolina.

The Petworth M. E. Church was thronged Thursday evening for the marriage of Miss Dorothy Ruberta Frisard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Frisard, and Mr. Henry H. Riley, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Riley of Wheeling, W. Va. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. Ellis Williams and the church was decorated with spring flowers, palms and ferns.

A musical program was given before the ceremony by Miss Ruth E. Riley, sister of the bridegroom; Mr. George Daw, violinist, and Mr. Harlan Randall.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white embroidered georgette and satin gown trimmed with crystal beads. Her tulle veil was arranged with a coronet of orange blossoms and her bouquet was of bride roses. Mrs. Murray Lee Gifford, the matron of honor, wore orchid georgette and lace and carried lavender sweet peas. Little Mildred Wenig was the flower girl.

Mr. Murray Lee Gifford was best man and the ushers were Mr. Vivian O'Dwyer, Mr. McKershon, Mr. Kennon Vail and Mr. Elbert Gearhart. A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents, when the bride and bridegroom were assisted in receiving by the bride's mother, Mrs. Frisard; Mrs. Kennon Vail and Miss Josephine Day, aunts of the bride, and by the members of the Lambda Phi Sigma Sorority.

Mr. and Mrs. Riley left Saturday for their wedding trip, and on their return they will reside at 8817 New Hampshire avenue. The out-of-town guests at the ceremony included Mrs. Riley, mother of the bridegroom, and his sister, Miss Ruth E. Riley of Wheeling, W. Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur T. Brice announce the engagement of their daughter, Alice to Mr. John Forsyth Joline, Jr., of Philadelphia. No date has been set for the wedding.

Mrs. Ray Phelps Hoover of Chicago entertained at a luncheon Saturday, May 27, at Wardman Park Hotel in compliment to her sister, Miss Ernestine Pearson of Englewood, N. J., at which the engagement of Miss Pearson to Mr. Brownell Riggs of Rockville, Md., was announced.

The marriage of Miss Julia A. Clapp and Mr. Walter J. Fleming took place Thursday, at 1 o'clock, at the Sacred Heart Church, the pastor, the Rev. P. C. Gavan, officiating. The bride, who was escorted by her father, was attended by Miss Mary M. Daly as maid of honor. Mr. James F. Donohue acted as best man. A breakfast followed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Ellis Clapp, for the relatives and bridal party, and Mr. and Mrs. Fleming left during the afternoon for Atlantic City. They will be at home after June 15 at 1228 Irving street.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Linder of Norwood, Pa., announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Elsie Linder, and Mr. James P. Shea Tuesday, May 22, in the rectory of St. Matthew's Church, Rhode Island avenue, this city. Mr. and Mrs. Shea left immediately after the ceremony for a southern tour in the Blue Ridge mountains and they will join a house party to be given by the parents of the bride, their home, in Norway, before going to Milwaukee, Wis., where they will be at home at 226 Mason street, apartment 16, after July 1. The bride is well known in musical circles, both here and in New York.

The marriage of Miss Helen B. Kerby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel L. Kerby, to Mr. Carroll R. Rector took place last evening at 8 o'clock in the Church of the Epiphany. The ceremony was performed, in the presence of a large company of relatives and friends, by the rector, Rev. Dr. James E. Freeman. An effective decoration of white peonies and other late spring blossoms, mingled with palms and ferns, was in place in the chancel. An elaborate program of music preceded the ceremony, beginning with a recital on the chimes, after which the organist, Mr. Adolf Torovsky, played the wedding music, and Mr. Ambrose Durkin, bass soloist of the church, sang "I Love You Truly" and "O Promise Me." The vested choir, of which the bride and bridegroom are both members, met the bride party at the door and preceded them to the altar, singing the "Lohengrin" bridal chorus. The bride was escorted and given in marriage by her father, and she wore a gown of duchoise satin, trimmed with pearls, with strands of pearls falling from the sleeves. A cluster of orange blossoms and narrow white satin ribbon streamers fell from the waist line. Her veil of tulle, which was worn by her mother, was held with a coronet of point d'esprit lace and pearls, and she carried a bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. William H. W. Briscoe, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and wore orchid georgette trimmed in velvet, with overdraperies of cream Spanish lace. Her leghorn picture hat was trimmed with chiffon roses and ostrich, and she carried an armful of pink peonies tied with orchid chiffon. The flower girls were Lillian Cox, a cluster of pink organdy with a hat of organdy trimmed with organdy flowers, and a chin strap and streamers of ribbon; and Loraine O'Leary, who wore a green organdy with an organdy hat to match. They carried baskets filled with lilies of the valley, sweethearts roses tied with pink and green ribbons. The little ringbearer, Carolyn Towler, wore a blue satin dress, and carried a white blouse, and carried the ring on a white satin pillow.

Mr. Harry W. Rector, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and the ushers were Mr. Letcher B. Connell and Mr. Maurice Parrish. A reception was held in the Willard room in the parish hall, where a decoration of roses, laurel and peonies made a background for the receiving party. Mr. and Mrs. Rector left last night for a northern trip, the latter wearing a cape dress of black and white crepe knit with a smart black hat and a corsage bouquet of pink roses and sweet peas. They will be at home after July 1 at the Norfolk apartment, 201 D street northeast.

MISS GRACE TOWLES, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Towles, whose engagement to Mr. N. W. Bass of Eldorado, Kan., is announced.

Of interest in Washington is the announcement of the engagement of Miss Eleanor S. Towne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Towne of New York and Mount Kisco, N. Y., to Mr. W. Gibson Carey, Jr., of New York. Mr. Carey, a graduate of Union College, class of 1918, is a son of Mr. W. Gibson Carey of Schenectady, N. Y. Formerly of Baltimore, he is a grandson of Mrs. Charles Baltimore Calvert of Washington. Mr. Carey served with the 30th Field Artillery through the war.

Miss Towne was presented to New York society in the autumn of 1920, and has since been active in the Junior League. She is a graduate of the Farmington School.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Pannill Ficklen announce the engagement of their daughter, Davette Corbell to Mr. Francis William Hill, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis W. Hill of Washington. No date has been set for the wedding.

A wedding charmingly arranged in very detail took place Tuesday, May 30, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. O'Hare, when Miss Mary Cornelia Moore of Elberton, Ga., became the bride of Mr. Fred Earl Burton of Blackwells, Ga.

The bride wore a gown of white georgette, piped in silver with a veil of tulle caught with rosebuds. She carried a bouquet of bride roses and sweethearts. Miss Anna V. Murray of Kingston, N. Y., wore a gown of Harding blue, trimmed with pearls and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The best man was Mr. T. H. Donald of Williamsburg, Va. Little Nina Marie O'Hare acted as ring-bearer.

Before the ceremony, Mrs. John Clarence Brown sang, "O Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. J. V. O'Hare on the piano.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Abernethy, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, and a reception followed. Mr. and Mrs. Burton left later for a trip to Savannah and Atlanta. They will be at home after June 20 in Williamsburg, W. Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred E. Clark announce the marriage of their daughter, Evelyn May, to Mr. Wade Hampton Vogts of Laurel Thursday evening, June 1. The ceremony was performed at 8:30 o'clock in the home of the bride's parents, near Laurel, by the Rev. William Lewis, pastor of the Centenary M. E. Church at Laurel, and Miss Minnie Vogts, sister of the bridegroom, played the wedding music. The house was decorated with pink roses and other cut flowers of the early summer and an informal reception followed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Vogts left later for a wedding trip and will be at home after June 15 at 3919 Illinois avenue.

The wedding of Miss Gladys D. Steele and Mr. Earl M. Kegel took place Tuesday afternoon, May 30. The ceremony was performed at 1 o'clock in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph D. Steele, at 1720 North Capitol street, by the Rev. Charles E. Fultz, in the presence of a large company of friends and relatives. The bride, who was escorted and given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of Delft blue canton and georgette crepe embroidered in cut steel beads, and she carried bride roses with a shower of lilies of the valley. Miss Alma Lovelace was maid of honor and wore changeable pink taffeta trimmed with silver roses and carried pink roses and ferns. Mr. Arthur Peterson of Wisconsin was best man. Miss Lettie Wisconsin was best man. Miss Lettie Wisconsin was best man.

Here's a most acceptable gift suggestion, especially appropriate for the June bride. Under the personal help and instruction of Mme. Vassileff the painting of Parchment Lamp Shades is simple and inexpensive.

Imagine this in brilliant colorings and you have but a conception of the hundreds of pretty designs from which to choose.

Meister of Easton, Md., played the wedding music and wore black and white crepe de chine.

After the ceremony a reception was held, when Mr. and Mrs. Kegel, the former a son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Kegel, stood under a bower of white flowers and a white satin wedding bell. Miss Harriet Lawless presided at the punch bowl, wearing a dress of Nile green organdy. Later Mr. and Mrs. Kegel left for a wedding trip, the latter wearing a tailored suit of blue, with a hat to match. They will make their home in Washington after their return June 15.

Mrs. Beall Daingerfield Le Bourgeois and Lieut. John Leslie Hall, U. S. Navy, were married Thursday afternoon at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. William B. Daingerfield at 1927 B street. The ceremony was performed by Chaplain Scott, U. S. Navy, and Lieut. and Mrs. Hall immediately after for a brief honeymoon. Lieut. Hall will sail with the midshipman practice crew today. Mrs. Hall will spend the remainder of this month with her mother.
